How does The CARes Project protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. Those measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does The CARes Project collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you submit an application or make payment on a loan.

Why can't I limit all sharing? Federal law gives you the right to limit only: sharing for affiliates' everyday business purpose-information about your creditworthiness, affiliates form using your information to market to you, sharing for non-affiliates to market to you. State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

Affiliates Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non-financial companies. WE HAVE NO AFFILIATES

Non-affiliates Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial or non-financial companies. We release payment information to credit reporting agencies if you have a loan through The CARes Project

Joint Marketing A formal agreement between non-affiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you. We do not release your information for marketing purposes.
